The Institutions Library is a wonderful and standard place for the members to do their researches or enjoy a book with a cup of coffee. It is housed in the first administrative building, ground floor, where you can access easily.

The library has become an important part of the Institution since its establishment in the year 2000. It continues to support the academic studies of the members by today.

The collection is regularly updated with current purchases and we offer the latest books available in respective engineering fields. The library has more than 8000 engineering books. Particular strengths are Design Standards, Design Guidelines etc.

The library serves as a peaceful and resourceful backdrop to inspire your studies.

1. Borrowing

Our library has a total stock of about 8000 books, about 25 journal titles and a range of other material such as thesis, dissertations, design standards and so forth. Most of these items can be borrowed subjected to the regulations stated under section 3.3

1.1 How to locate an item

The most efficient way to identify the location of an item is to use the library Online Public Access Catalogues - OPAC.

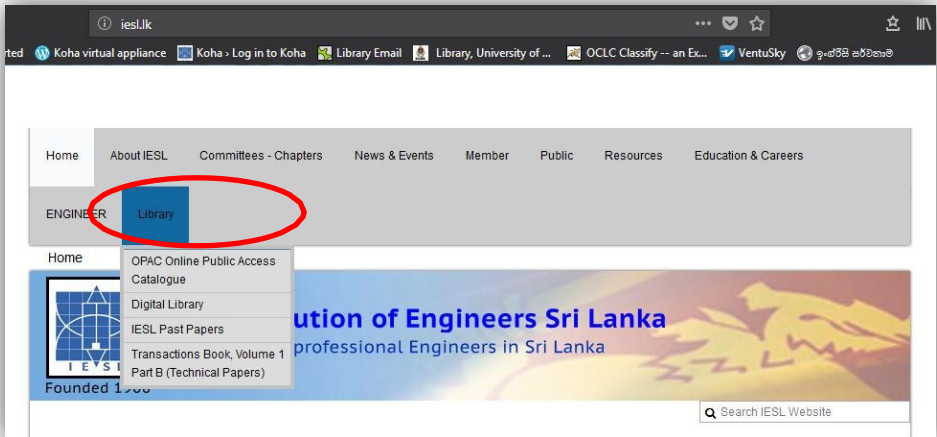

OPAC URL: <https://74.208.213.243>

The books in the library are arranged on the selves according to the Universal Decimal Classification system, which makes it easy for you to exactly locate the place where an item you want is shelved. The first level of subject index based on the UDC system is provided in pages 19 - 25.

(a) Library Online Public Access Catalogue

The online catalogue refers an “OPAC – Online Public Access Catalogue” could be accessed through the www.iesl.lk IESL web site.

IESL Library OPAC

Users, you have the facility of searching for books, journals etc.

You can search by Author, Title, ISBN,
Keywords etc.

The search interface is very user friendly and you can get information of searched items as illustrated below.

1.3 How to borrow

-  You need to have a bar-coded ID card, which is issued by the IESL library at the time of registration for library membership.
-  Call over at the issue desk with the book/s and present your bar-coded ID card. The staff member will issue the book to you.
-  Please bring to the notice of the staff at the issuing desk of any missing pages, damages to pages prior to you borrow them. You will be responsible for damages if noticed on returning the items.
-  Member bar-coded ID card must be with you at all times you use the library. The card should be produced on request by any of the library staff at any time.
-  Do not lend your card to anyone, as you will be responsible for all loans issued against your card.

1.4 Regulation Related to borrowing

Type of Material	Students	Members
Books on Lend	1 month	1 month
Reference book	Only for reference	Only for reference
Overnight Collection	Reference only	for 1 night
Periodical collection	Reference only	Reference only
Collection of Proceedings	Reference only	Reference only
IESL Collection	Reference only	Reference only

Table 1: Regulations with regard to loan periods

- Members include all fellows, Corporate Members, Associate Members and Affiliate Members of IESL.
- Student members include all students enrolled for a four-year full-time engineering degree course at an IESL recognized institution.

1.5 Regulation related borrowing periods and number of items

Member Category	Number of items	Time period	Max. extension period
Students	Two Books	One Month	2 week
Members	Two Books	One Month	2 week

Table 2: Regulations related borrowing periods and number of items

Material issued on loan may be requested to return back by the library staff at any time.

1.6 Renewal of borrowed materials

Renewal of borrowed materials may be granted, provided those items are not reserved by other library members. Please use other book renewal mode using web OPAC within concerned borrow. More information can be found through OPAC URL: 74.208.213.243

1.7 Returning of borrowed materials

Please remember that you are responsible for all your loans until they are returned back to the library. In order to avoid paying an overdue penalty and as a courtesy to other members, waiting for the library material you have borrowed, please return them on time or prior to the due date.

1.8 Overdue

The library's lending policy aims to allow as many members as possible to access material. Therefore if you do not return items by the due date, you may have to pay an overdue charge.

Library Management System (LMS) issues reminders well prior to the due date and as well as just before the due date.

Please don't wait for reminders. Penalties may begin accruing before you receive it and your borrowing privileges will be suspended when you have overdue loans.

1.9 Fines/Overdue Charges.

Fines will be levied for overdue items borrowed, as per the details provided below.

Fine per day for both members and students is Rs:10.00. Fines could be paid on the day borrowed materials are returned by cash directly at the issuing and receiving desk.

The fine rate is subjected to change and will be determined by the Library Development Committee(LDC) from time to time, all members are kept informed of all such changes via the online membership management system.

Remember: Avoid payment of all charges by returning borrowed material on time.

1.10 Lost items.

If you didn't return the items on time, fines will get-accumulated. If you were unable to return the materials, despite the continuous three reminders, your borrowed items will be treated as lost items.

Under such a situation

1. On the day lost is reported or else the date stated in the 3rd reminder, whichever comes first the fine accumulation is terminated by virtually returning the items via MIS, and the browser is asked to comply with one of the following courses of actions.
2. To replace the same book by a new one and to settle the accumulated fines.
3. To replace by a similar new book and to pay the accumulated fines. The new book should be approved by the LDC.
4. To replace with any new book recommended by the LDC and to settle the accumulated fines.

1.11 Digital Library

Users can log in to the digital library through the following

URL. <http://iesl.lk/Digital-Library>
